Training School Events 2011-2012

Woodchurch High School
A School with a Church of England Trust

Woodchurch High School has been a Training School since April 2010. Over that time strong links have been established between the school and a range of partners in delivering high quality CPD, both at school and as outreach opportunities. This work has been undertaken both within the local authority and beyond, covering both primary and secondary phases, as well as the wider school workforce.

Besides the planned programme outlined below, school is keen for other schools, organisations and agencies to contact us to request any training needs they may have identified.

The CPD opportunities offered in this booklet are available free of charge to all schools within Wirral who have entered into the EQ Traded Services Packages with
