Please make a summative comment about RE in the school which may be used for publicity	Religious Studies in Woodchurch is popular with learners who respond enthusiastically with the opportunity to discuss the important topics covered. The curriculum is diverse, engaging with various religions and worldview in a context of respect and enquiry. Pupil voice is outstanding, with use made of modern technology in the form of Google Forms to give pupils the chance to feed back to teachers and actively shape the curriculum and learning experience. Teaching is driven by research and the school is actively engaged with local and national networks in order to drive the subject forward.
